Your new email address is, in most cases, in the following format firstname.lastname@tudublin.ie and you can access it using your current email password.

Any email sent to your former @dit.ie email address will automatically be re-directed to your new @tudublin.ie address.

Emails, contacts and calendar events from your former email address have migrated to your new account and shared calendars will need to be re-shared.

Keep forgetting your email password? If you register for Self-Service Password Reset - tudublin.ie/password you’ll be able to reset or change your password 24/7. Registering couldn’t be easier just provide an alternative email address, mobile number or provide answers for a number of security questions and you’ll never be locked out of your email again.
