

FinBiz Sustainability Series

This is a STLR tagged event

At this session we will hear from Nigel Cowman about sustainability within the sporting industry:

Nigel Cowman

Nigel Cowman graduated from UCD with a B.Comm degree and qualified as a Chartered Accountant while training with KPMG in Dublin. He then moved to the Netherlands where he worked in the Nike EMEA headquarters for 7 years in various Finance roles, including Finance Director for the Nike EMEA Footwear business unit, the second largest business unit for Nike globally.

He then moved to the UK as Finance & Operations Director for Nike UK & Ireland before taking up a position as General Manager of the Nike Running category. He also held the position of General Manager for Nike Ireland.

More recently Nigel has spent 12 years as Finance Director and Commercial Director for Life Style Sports.

Nigel is an avid sports fan and has completed the Dublin and Amsterdam marathons, the London Triathlon, Gael Force West and has trekked to Everest base camp and climbed Mount Kilimanjaro.

Presented by:

Linda Mc Weeney, BBS, MACC, FCA, DipIFRS is a Chartered accountant and an experienced Lecturer in Accounting and Finance at TU Dublin, having lectured for the past 20 years. Linda is currently non-executive director for MCL Insurance Services (Ireland) Ltd. Current area of research, sustainable finance.

Mary Jane Webberley, BA Hons, PGDip, FCA is a Chartered accountant and a Lecturer in Accounting and Finance at TU Dublin for several years. Mary Jane is currently an examiner and moderator with the Chartered Accountants Ireland. Current area of research, sustainable finance.