March 2023 Sept 2023	In March 2023, TU Dublin published its first TU Dublin Climate Action Roadmap March 2023 which sets out a route towards meeting our obligations under the Public Sector Climate Action Mandate. V2 was released in September 2023. TU Dublin aims to provide a minimum of 70% renewable space heating on site by 2030 and will engage in opportunities to extend these benefits to local Sustainable Energy Communities (SECs) and Renewable Energy Communities (RECs). The roadmap details several energy efficiency and renewable energy initiatives including district heating, borehole exploration, information campaigns, retrofit and energy efficient buildings.
Ongoing	TU Dublin is one of 17 higher education institutes to benefit from a €193M investment in Science Foundation Ireland (SFI) research centres over a period of six years. The five world-leading centres will carry out research into smart cities, as well as a range of other research.
Ongoing	TU Dublin Grangegorman Campus Environment Sustainability Master Plan outlines its commitment to preserving 30 existing protected structures and places significant focus on pedestrian movements that guarantee the conditions for walking trips to be encouraged (p. 12- 13).
Ongoing	The Grangegorman Community Museum preserves the history of the original Grangegorman site as Ireland’s first Psychiatric Hospital, dating from 1814, to today within the current TU Dublin University, Ireland’s first technological university of Ireland.
Ongoing	TU Dublin’s Lower House is the oldest historic building in Grangegorman, which was part of the original Richmond Asylum between 1810-1815 and has been beautifully restored as the main TU Dublin Student Hub, welcoming 10,000 students. A range of historical buildings have been restored as part of the TU Dublin University project.
Ongoing	TU Dublin’s library provides a wide range of membership to non-TU Dublin registered staff, students and communities including: - TU Dublin Alumni and External Readers

	- TU Dublin is a member of ALCID a co-operative access scheme between the universities of Ireland, allowing academics to collections without formality.
Ongoing	TU Dublin encourages staff and students to take advantage of the Government initiative offering tax-free bikes for cycling to work or tax-free annual transport passes.
Ongoing	TU Dublin Encourages and promotes working from home to provide a sustainable approach to work and commuting
Ongoing	TU Dublin is undertaking several initiatives to reduce the adverse environmental impact of cities including: - Air Quality : as part of the UN Globe Project, TU Dublin is working with Dublin City Council and local schools to take NO2 measurements and is the only institute in Ireland monitoring pollen to provide an Ireland specific pollen forecast. - Biodiversity : each of TU Dublin's three main campuses work in conjunction with their local municipality's biodiversity action plan with interventions that aim to progress the local natural environment.
