Getting here

Walking and cycling

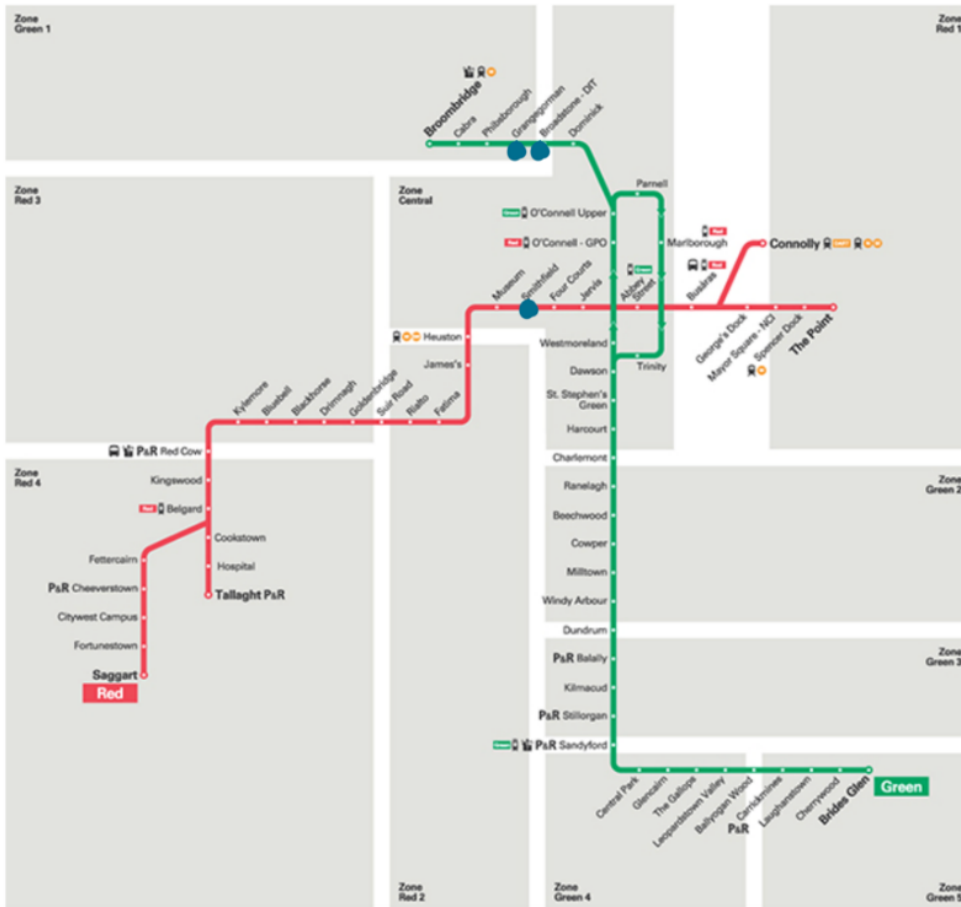

The TU Dublin, Grangegorman campus can be accessed by bike from anywhere in Dublin's City Centre in approximately 10 mins. For those walking or wheeling, it could take approximately 25 minutes to walk to the campus from The Spire, on O'Connell Street Upper.

Luas

TU Dublin’s Grangegorman campus is served by two Green Line Luas stations the Broadstone stop and the Grangegorman stop, and is just a seven minute ride from O’Connell Street. Take the Green Line Luas in the direction of Broombridge. The East Quad building is between both stops but most travellers disembark at the Broadstone stop and walk up the ramp towards the campus.

If you are closer to the Red Line Luas, you can also take that to the Smithfield stop, and Grangegorman is just a ten-minute walk away.

Train

Irish Rail and DART stations at Heuston, Connolly, Broombridge, Pearse Street and Tara Street are all within a 30-minute walking distance to the campus and are also close to bus and Luas connections that will take you to Grangegorman.

Parking

The Grangegorman campus is traffic-free campus, and there are no parking spaces available to visitors. However, Pay & Display spaces are available in the North Circular Road and the Park House car parks. The University has also agreed on a special all-day rate of €9 per day in the Parkrite car park in Smithfield, and a validator is installed at Rathdown House.

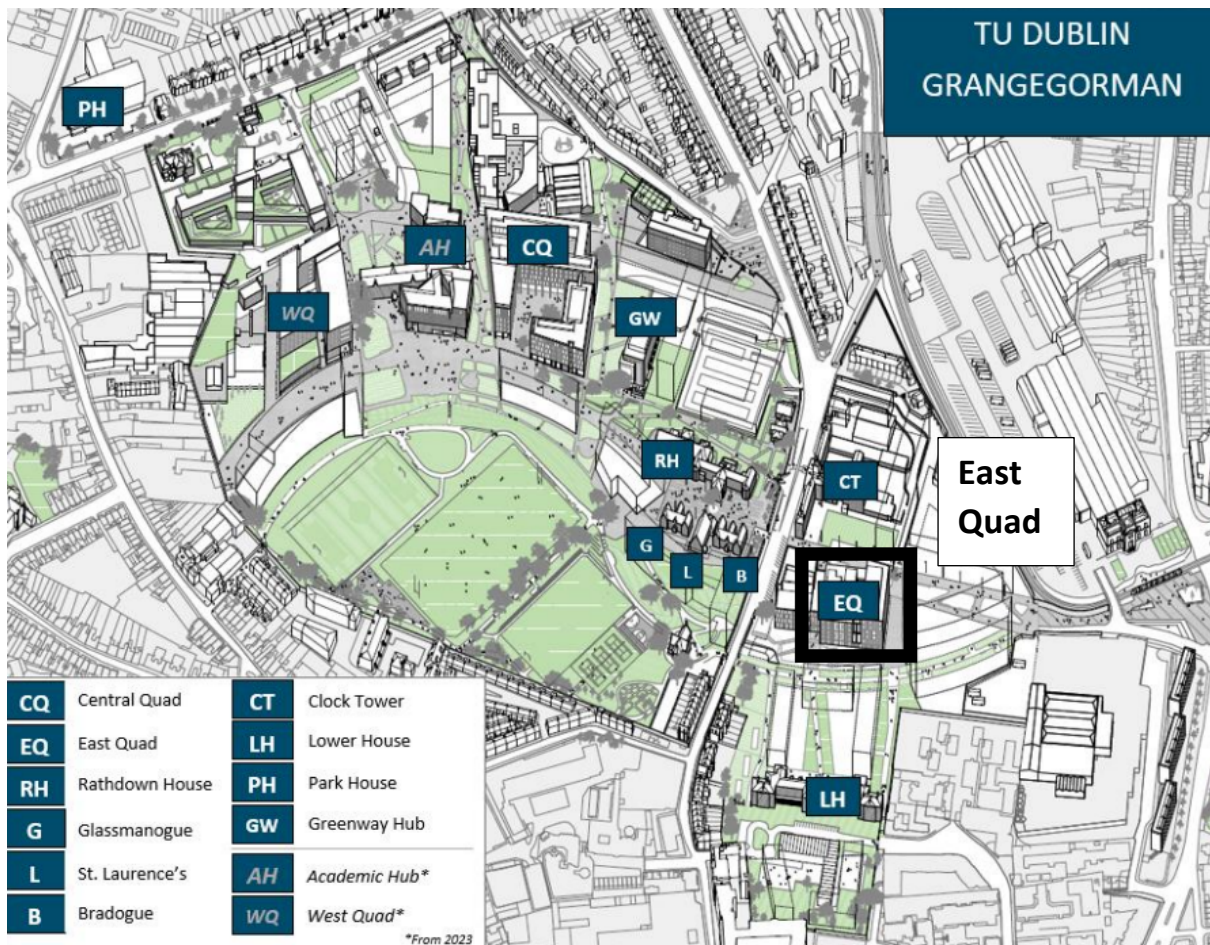

Bus

The Grangegorman campus is easily accessible by bus. Check www.dublinbus.ie for up to date timetable information. Try the Dublin Bus journey planner to find your best bus route to a TU Dublin campus.
