

Job Hunting Links – Ireland and Abroad

(Dec 2024)

When looking for work it is important to use as many different ways as possible and don't just rely on 2 or 3 ways. Below are lists of useful websites that advertise job vacancies:

College Careers Services and Students Unions' Vacancy Listings:

College Career Centres advertise vacancies for graduates and students on behalf of employers. Check these websites on a regular basis as new vacancies are frequently added. Note that all college career centres will advertise jobs available throughout the island of Ireland and internationally, not just in the region where they are based. They include immediate vacancies, graduate programmes, summer and part-time jobs.
