

CIOB Dublin Hub

e: uhennigan@ciob.org.uk
w: <http://events.ciob.org>

Alan Barnes, winner of CMYA Ireland 2019

Wednesday, March 11th, 2020

CIOB Novus Dublin Hub, in conjunction with the School of Surveying and Construction Management, TU Dublin, Bolton Street, are delighted to announce that Alan Barnes, CMYA Ireland 2019 winner, will deliver a presentation regarding his winning project, in the Michael O'Donnell theatre, Room 259, TU Dublin, Bolton Street, on March 11th, 2020.

The Construction Manager of the Year Awards (CMYA) in Ireland recognise the achievements of those leading complex schemes and Barnes was praised for his ingenuity, dedication and construction management skills, with the job delivered to an extremely tight budget and time frame.

Please join us for an inspiring event which will see Alan outline his role in constructing the winning project on the Scot's Church building, at the VHI Headquarters. He will outline the project scope and the key challenges faced throughout the two year build.

Time: 6.15pm - 7.30pm

Venue: Michael O'Donnell Theatre, Room 259, TU Dublin, Bolton Street

Date: Wednesday, March 11th

Register

Please register on the CIOB Events page
<https://events.ciob.org/ehome/200200497>

Follow

VAT No: 492064443 Charity No: