

26 JULY 2024, 7PM

Lurline

with the National Symphony Orchestra

Concert performance of the Grand Legendary Opera
By William Vincent Wallace

PERFORMING AT

NATIONAL CONCERT
HALL \ AN CEOLÁRAS
NÁISIÚNTA

01 417 0000
nch.ie

A rare opportunity to experience live this magnificent opera

Don't miss this performance of LURLINE, the exquisite grand opera composed by Waterford-born William Vincent Wallace, based on the Lorelei legend of the Rhine mermaid. Despite Lurline's initial rave reviews, very few modern performances have taken place. This concert performance features a star-studded cast led by Irish soprano Rachel Kelly, described in reviews as 'sheerly lustrous' and 'compelling' (The Times), and the Portuguese tenor, Luis Gomes – a 'riveting performer' with a 'thrilling top register' (The Guardian). Making his Irish debut is the highly-regarded Péter Halász, principal guest conductor of the Hungarian State Opera.

CAST

Rachel Kelly, Lurline
Ashley Riches, Rheinberg
Luis Gomes, Count Rudolph
Gemma Ní Bhriain, Ghiva
Thomas D. Hopkinson, Zelieck, a Gnome
Rory Dunne, The Baron Truenfels
Anna Brady, Liba
William Pearson, Wilhelm
Lurline Opera Chorus
National Symphony Orchestra

Péter Halász, conductor
Vivian Coates, director/designer
Duncan Brickenden, chorus master
Valerie Langfield, score reconstructor
Edward Holly, repetiteur
Una Hunt, producer

Co-production by the National Symphony Orchestra and Heritage Music Productions, supported by the Arts Council's Opera Projects and Production Award.

Tickets: €15, €23.50, €31, €38.50

(limited concessions available)

BOOKING ONLINE: www.nch.ie | TELEPHONE: 01 417 0000

